Don't forget to study Math Facts!

100th day is on Tuesday the 19th. Be sure to send in your child's 100's display on that day! Do not send it in a baggie- it should be grouped and displayed.

In honor of Valentine's Day, we discussed and wrote about when we know someone loves us. If you go to our class website, you can see what the children said! There are also lots of new pictures of the day's activities for you to view.

I would like to extend a special thanks to all the parents who helped out with our Valentine activities. The children had a great time playing with the conversation hearts.

We have just finished up our first Math workbook. (You probably noticed it in your child's backpack.) Since there are often 3-4 pages a day, we do not get to all of them. These extra pages make great practice work.

OR— you could save and use during the summer!
